

ATWEC TO MEET DR. STEPHEN JOHN THURSTON, PRESIDENT OF THE NATIONAL BAPTIST CONVENTION OF AMERICA, INC. INTERNATIONAL

Dr. Stephen John Thurston and Other NBCA officials' endorsement of ATWEC's mission and products are main topics of Discussion

Memphis, TN – Sept 08, 2010 (Market Wire)- (PINKSHEETS: ATWT) ATWEC Technologies will be meeting with Dr. Stephen John Thurston and other officials on Sept. 10, 2010 to discuss an endorsement by the National Baptist Convention of America, Inc. International.

The safety of our community is a high priority and Dr. Thurston and the NBCA International organization is blazing the trails to promoting the mission of ATWEC child safety because it is importance to him and fellow officials.

“The safety of our children is always at the forefront of our minds; as parents we look for any tool that can secure and keep them safe. It is with this in mind that we join ATWEC in getting this wonderful product in the hands of every family,” said President Dr. Stephen John Thurston.

The NBCA and its 1.5 million members' endorsement of ATWEC's mission and support for the product marks the beginning of a dream of President/CEO Alex T. Wiley to offer solutions for the horrific tragedies that are happening daily throughout our nation.

Mr. Tyron Dunn, architect of the ATWEC endorsement program, will be sharing the concepts designed to bring commerce and entrepreneurship as the products are purchased by the NBCA memberships.

“ATWEC through the NBCA endorsement sees its mission of child safety unfolding and the history of this company is being written because of Dr. Stephen John Thurston and other NBCA officials. ATWEC, an American success story, will touch the lives of many communities because of this great partnership,” said President/CEO Alex T. Wiley.
